

crafting a compelling abstract

Professional Development Seminar (Brown Bag)

Hone your abstract writing, an invaluable skill at all stages of professional development. Phyllis McBride, Director of the Office of Proposal Development, will present on how to write a compelling abstract. Dr. McBride will focus on how to adapt your writing to make your abstract stand out from others, even if your topic isn't a "perfect fit" for the conference proposal. There will be ample time for questions
